

From: Ron Williams
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/25/01 10:07am
Subject: Microsoft Antitrust settlement

The settlement is a complete sell-out. It does not even address the findings of fact in the case. You have not even done your jobs. The findings alone must be addressed; they are not.

It would appear that Microsoft's money has bought them what they want, the right to continue to be a monopoly.

Regards,

Ron Williams